

SMH-MUN III

Saturday, March 21, 2015

Awards Formula / Rubric

Revolution: Demanding Progress or Endorsing Chaos?

Positions Paper 2 Points	Positions Paper 4 Points	Positions Paper 6 Points	Positions Paper 8 Points	Positions Paper 10 Points
The position paper is completed with little to know substance and is clearly lacking in substance	The position paper contains one or two arguments in support of a few concepts that vaguely fit the country's position on the issue at hand. Several grammatical errors maybe present, but there was clearly an attempt to create a sufficient research paper.	The position paper contains few warranted arguments in support of a few clear points that consist of the Nation's respective viewpoints. The document is mostly accurate with multiple grammatical errors that effect readability.	The position paper contains well-warranted arguments in support of a few clear points that consist of the Nation's respective viewpoints. The document is factually accurate with multiple grammatical errors that affect readability.	The position paper contains well-warranted arguments in support of multiple clear points that consist of the Nation's respective viewpoints. The document is factually accurate with little or no grammatical errors.
Parliamentary Procedure 4 Points	Parliamentary Procedure 8 Points	Parliamentary Procedure 12 Points	Parliamentary Procedure 16 Points	Parliamentary Procedure 20 Points
The delegate makes few attempts to follow parliamentary procedure or is constantly	The delegate roughly follows parliamentary procedure and works well with other delegates, despite a few	The delegate roughly follows parliamentary procedure, but does not disturb other delegates, while	The delegate follows parliamentary procedure fairly accurately and makes only a few mistakes, but	The delegate accurately follows parliamentary procedure to the letter and has done nothing to

SMH-MUN III

Saturday, March 21, 2015

Awards Formula / Rubric

Revolution: Demanding Progress or Endorsing Chaos?

disruptive to the experience of other delegates at the conference.	disturbances to the parliamentary procedure of other delegates.	remembering to cooperate with other delegates in a productive manner.	nothing that disturbs the parliamentary procedure for other delegates, while cooperating with other delegates.	disturb parliamentary procedure and actively cooperates with other delegates.
Speaker's List 3 Points	Speaker's List 6 Points	Speaker's List 9 Points	Speaker's List 12 Points	Speaker's List 15 Points
The delegate has at least made an appropriate contribution with a meaningful point of information.	The delegate has made several appropriate contributions with meaningful questions for speakers.	The delegate has participated in the speakers list and made contributions through meaningful questions for speakers.	The delegate has spoken multiple times on the speakers list, with contributions through meaningful questions for speakers.	The delegate made several contributions in an eloquent manner and actively participated through well thought out questions.
Notes 1 Points	Notes 2 Points	Notes 3 Points	Notes 4 Points	Notes 5 Points
1 or 2 notes were sent and were appropriate.	Notes are infrequently sent and are appropriate and meaningful.	Notes are occasionally sent and are appropriate and meaningful.	Notes, when sent, are appropriate and meaningful.	Notes, while somewhat frequent, are appropriate and meaningful.

SMH-MUN III

Saturday, March 21, 2015

Awards Formula / Rubric

Revolution: Demanding Progress or Endorsing Chaos?

Moderated and Unmoderated Caucus 4 Points	Moderated and Unmoderated Caucus 8 Points	Moderated and Unmoderated Caucus 12 Points	Moderated and Unmoderated Caucus 16 Points	Moderated and Unmoderated Caucus 20 Points
The delegate makes one or two contributions during moderated caucuses and is active in unmoderated caucuses.	The delegate makes multiple contributions during moderated caucuses and is active in unmoderated caucuses.	The delegate makes several contributions during moderated caucuses and is active in unmoderated caucuses.	The delegate makes several contributions during the moderated caucuses, which usually reflect the concerns of the delegate's nation and helps with resolutions during unmoderated caucuses.	The delegate makes several key contributions during moderated caucuses and helps direct the flow of conversation towards potential solutions in both moderated and unmoderated caucuses.
Resolution Drafting 3 Points	Resolution Drafting 6 Points	Resolution Drafting 9 Points	Resolution Drafting 12 Points	Resolution Drafting 15 Points
The delegate has participated at least once as a sponsor or signatory in a way that vaguely follows the nation's	The delegate is occasionally a sponsor or signatory on bills that may reflect the nation's view. Proper use of preambulatory	The delegate is occasionally a sponsor or signatory on bills that favor the nation's respective view. Proper use of	The delegate is a sponsor and signatory on bills that favor the nation's respective view. Proper use of operative and	The delegate is frequently a sponsor and signatory on bills that favor the nation's respective view. Proper use of

SMH-MUN III

Saturday, March 21, 2015

Awards Formula / Rubric

Revolution: Demanding Progress or Endorsing Chaos?

respective view.	and operative clauses is mostly observed.	preambulatory and operative clauses is mostly observed.	preambulatory clauses is mostly observed.	operative and preambulatory clauses is observed.
Integrity 3 Points	Integrity 6 Points	Integrity 9 Points	Integrity 12 Points	Integrity 15 Points
The delegate attempts to represent his or her nation.	The delegate occasionally expresses the respective view of their nation.	The delegate does an acceptable job of representing the view of their nation.	The delegate almost always represents the respective view of their nation.	The delegate accurately defends the views of their nation.